WEST COAST BALLET THEATRE'S family oriented and enchanting production of The Nutcracker captures the magic, excitement and innocence of the classic children's tale. Moreover, it holds the distinction of being the only performance in San Diego danced by both youth and principal dancers side by side. Nearly 200 performers from the San Elijo Dance & Music Academy, the preeminent arts academy in San Diego's North County and other San Diego studios, perform alongside internationally acclaimed guest artists from the Pacific Northwest Ballet in this stunning, grand-scale production that features spectacular sets, gorgeous costumes, dazzling pyrotechnics, special effects, flying fairies, live snow and music by the San Diego Civic Youth Orchestra. The Nutcracker promises to dance its way into the hearts of young, and those young at heart for years to come.

NUTCRACKER PERFORMANCE TICKETS: $18 - $39

THE SUGAR PLUM FAIRY and her friends from the Last of Sweets host this magically enchanted event for the young and the very young at heart. A tastefully catered lunch filled with delicious treats, the Tea Party brings community and families together to celebrate the story of The Nutcracker. Held in the Main Conference Hall of the California Center for the Arts-Escondido, this inspiring event ushers in Holiday spirit through beautiful decorations, elaborate table settings, story time by the Sugar Plum Fairy, autograph and photo opportunities with cast members. The Tea Party ends with an informal parade to the theatre where the Fairy makes it snow before the 1:00 PM performance. Proceeds from the event go to the San Elijo Dance and Music Academy Scholarship Fund. Buy your tickets now before this popular event sells out!

TEA PARTY TICKETS: ADULTS $40; CHILDREN $35
